

Gallery Activity Grades 3-7

Directions: Explore the exhibits to find the answers to these questions.

1. Enter the exhibits. Locate the panel about the establishment of Camp Shelby. Circle the picture of the man Camp Shelby was named for:

2. Walk through the World War I trench. Find the soldier in the picture on the left and answer these questions.

Describe what the soldier is doing.

Why do you think he isn't wearing socks or shoes?

3. Find the Six-Man Hutment in the World War II gallery.

Who would have lived in this tent?

How is this tent different from your home?

4. Locate the 5 women's military uniforms in the large case in the World War II gallery. There is one uniform for each of the five branches of the United States military. Name each branch represented in this case from left to right.

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.
- 4.
- 5.

5. Find the silver trophy in the World War II gallery and read the text panel to the left to answer these questions.

Who won the trophy?

What kind of contest was it?

6. Enter the Halls of Honor. On the left side of the room are Mississippians who have received the Medal of Honor, America's highest military award.
Select one person who has received the Medal of Honor and write their name:

Why did you pick this person?

7. Find the Korean War gallery.
Who was the first African American aviator in the U.S. Navy?

Where was he from?

8. Locate the helicopter diorama in the Vietnam War gallery.
Describe what is happening in this scene.

Why would injured soldiers be relieved to see this type of helicopter?

9. Enter the Global War on Terrorism gallery. Locate the US Army uniform.
List 2 things you can learn about this soldier by just looking at the uniform (look closely).

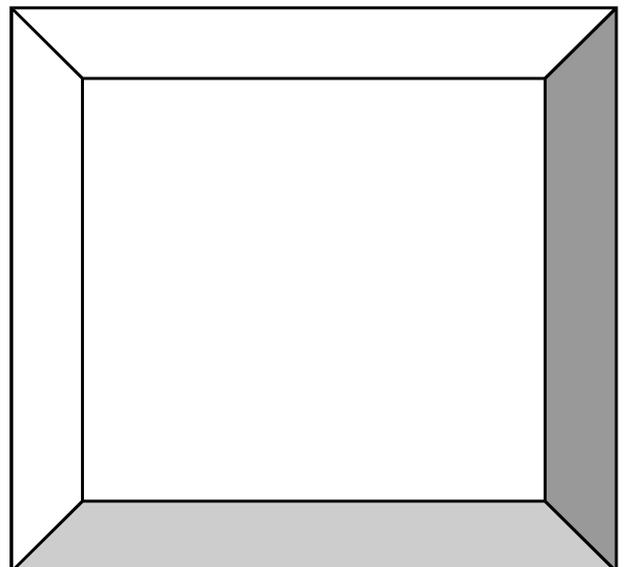

1.

2.

10. Heroes come in all shapes and sizes. Being brave is not all it takes to be a hero; it also takes integrity, commitment, courage, and sacrifice.

Who is your hero?

Why?

Draw a portrait of your hero here!